About CAT Youth Theatre

CAT Youth Theatre companies meet weekly to explore their ideas and creativity and to build their skills through

- theatre games & exercises
- improvisation
- scene development & rehearsals
- critical reflection & discussion

Under the facilitation of CAT staff, Youth Theatre companies create and perform original shows based on the ideas of the young people each year.

This empowering experience broadens students' horizons, builds self-esteem, and creates community.

CAT Youth Theatre members include young people from across the five boroughs of New York City. Members participate free of charge, on a first-come, first served basis, with no audition.

the Main Points

If you join us this fall:

- The CAT Youth Theatre (9th-12th grades) meets on Tuesday evenings.
- The CAT Junior Youth Theatre (6th-8th grades) meets on Wednesday evenings.
- Sessions run from 4:00pm to 6:30pm, September through May.
- There is no charge for participation.
- No theatre experience is necessary.
- Applicants for the CAT Youth Theatre must be currently attending high school. Applicants for the CAT JUNIOR Youth Theatre must be in 6th, 7th, or 8th grade.
